691 "Holy Spirit" is the proper name of the one whom we adore and glorify with the Father and the Son. The Church has received this name from the Lord and professes it in the Baptism of her new children.... On the other hand, "Spirit" and "Holy" are divine attributes common to the three divine persons. By joining the two terms, Scripture, liturgy, and theological language designate the inexpressible person of the Holy Spirit, without any possible equivocation with other uses of the terms "spirit" and "holy."

Great Movie Night: Thursday @ 7pm

NAPOLEON (1927, PART ONE, 83MIN). Abel Gance's Napoleon (1927) is too big a movie to miss. This broad-beamed silent epic reportedly ran for nine hours in its original cut, which is even more impressive when you consider that it was conceived as merely the first film in a six-part biography.

Last weeks collection total was $1814.00 (excluding PAG)
A HEARTFELT THANK YOU FOR YOUR ONGOING GENEROSITY!
