Would you like to know what the Church teaches about everything?

CCC 1023 – Heaven: By virtue of our apostolic authority, we define the following: According to the general disposition of God, the souls of all the saints . . . and other faithful who died after receiving Christ's holy Baptism (provided they were not in need of purification when they died, . . . or, if they then did need or will need some purification, when they have been purified after death, . . .) already before they take up their bodies again and before the general judgment - and this since the Ascension of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ into heaven - have been, are and will be in heaven, in the heavenly Kingdom and celestial paradise with Christ, joined to the company of the holy angels. Since the Passion and death of our Lord Jesus Christ, these souls have seen and do see the divine essence with an intuitive vision, and even face to face, without the mediation of any creature.

SUMMER CINEMA SERIES

Touch of Evil (1958, 95min.) This film is one of the best film noir crime detective movies. Orson Welles elevates this genre to true art through his still famous camera work. He acts alongside Charlton Heston and Janet Leigh as a perfect contrast of bloated, hard-boiled investigator to the dashing Heston in the investigation of a car bombing across the Mexican border.

Last week's collection total was $1530.85 (excluding PAG)
