We wish you a renewed love for God in the flesh and the Holy Eucharist this Christmas. See you next week for the Solemnity of the Mother of God!

St. Gregory of Nyssa on the Incarnation

Sick, our nature demanded to be healed; fallen, to be raised up; dead, to rise again. We had lost the possession of the good; it was necessary for it to be given back to us. Closed in the darkness, it was necessary to bring us the light; captives, we awaited a Savior; prisoners, help; slaves, a liberator. Are these things minor or insignificant? Did they not move God to descend to human nature and visit it, since humanity was in so miserable and unhappy a state?

PLEASE NOTE: Fr. Jim will return for Adoration and Mass Friday morning.

THERE WILL BE NO MASS ON DECEMBER 26th, 27th or 28th

The office will be open on Thursday, December 28th.

The final deposit of 2023 will take place on December 28th. Donations received after that, will be credited to your 2024 tax receipt.

The 2024 Offertory Envelopes are ready for pickup. If you do not have envelopes, there are a few unlabelled boxes for you to choose from, just please remember to fill out the card and place it in the bin provided.

IMPORTANT Please do not use your new envelopes until the New Year. Also, since we have made a few changes, please write your name on the first three envelopes of the year. THANK YOU!

Christmas | Sacred Art

Join Dr. Ben Akers and Taylor Kemp as they look at the painting Adoration of the Shepherds by Gerard van Honthorst to celebrate the Nativity of our Lord. This famous painting reveals the Christ Child as the light that has come into the world and also depicts the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph, and the shepherds to be models of adoration to our humble Lord who came as a helpless baby.
