Worthy Reception of Holy Communion

As Catholics, we believe that the Holy Eucharist is truly the Risen Lord Jesus Christ. To receive Him worthily, we must be in a state of grace, which means that we should not be in a state of mortal sin. A mortal sin is the deliberate breaking of one of the Ten Commandments. For example, missing Holy Mass on Sunday is a mortal sin. Sickness excuses one from this obligation.

A prayerful Reflection for the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord: Gracious Lord, I give thanks for the gift of Baptism. It is by Your grace that I am worthy to be called Your child. Renew my strength and help me to keep Your commandments, so that I can grow closer to You. I pray for my parents, godparents, priests and my church community, who have helped me to grow in faith and love for You. May I be always mindful of Your unfailing love. Amen
