“Father, I have not seen many of the films listed. They seem intimidating.” Do not be afraid!

The Catholic Church has long been a patron, supporter, promoter, creator of great art. Consider the towering cathedrals of the world, the fine music written for the Mass (most of Mozart and Beethoven’s best works are Mass settings), and the stunning paintings the dot Europe. All inspired by Catholic Faith.

Even in the 20th and 21st centuries where faith seems to conflict with art, the small still voice of truth continues to speak.

Great artists, including of motion pictures, whether they are explicit with it or not, cannot help but present at least a sliver of truth in a beautiful way. This is the reason why great films can be so important for the life of the soul.

God is Truth, Goodness and Beauty. Anyone who connects us with this Reality – however faint it might be – is directing us back to the God who entered into the nitty gritty of human life. Whatever is truly human, is truly Christian.

Come and check out great cinema evenings, Thursdays at 7pm.

You haven’t lived until you have seen at least one Swedish art film, a silent movie and a Japanese samurai movie!
